++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Overnight rain, persistent in places. Warm and sunnier Saturday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain, heavy at times, remain likely through the evening and into overnight, before gradually easing through the early hours. Cloud will remain widespread for all throughout. Feeling milder than Thursday night. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Saturday:
Widespread early cloud will break to patchy fair-weather cloud into the afternoon, allowing for sunny spells but also the odd isolated shower, most likely in the north. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Warm and dry conditions throughout the period. Plenty of sunshine on Sunday and Bank Holiday Monday, with patchy fair-weather cloud and a sea breeze. Staying sunny Tuesday but becoming breezy.
